MEMORANDUM FOR: Training Liaison Officers (for distribution)

SUBJECT: Intelligence Products Exhibit

1. The Intelligence Products Exhibit, created by the Office of Training for use in Basic Orientation, will be shown in the Auditorium of the Recreation and Service Building on Tuesday, 10 May, between 0930 and 1200.

2. The Intelligence Products Exhibit outlines in graphic form the activities of the various components of CIA. It gives an insight into the processes and results involved in CIA's production of scientific, economic, current and national intelligence and into its overt collection efforts. It presents a detailed picture of the intelligence support facilities which have been set up to serve the Intelligence Community. In addition, it shows selected intelligence documents published by the other intelligence agencies.

3. Division and Staff Chiefs and personnel under their supervision have found this Exhibit to be of interest and significance. Others in the Agency who have not had the opportunity to visit the display are cordially invited to attend.
